

Positively BIRMINGHAM Walking Tours

Newsletter April 2018

Tour Dates Easter – April 2018

- City centre walking tours continue on Saturdays and Wednesdays.
- Several morning tours allow you to 'do the double' with lunch in between! Great for day-trippers.

Easter Week	Tour
Wednesday 28 th March	13.30 Museum Steps
Saturday 31 st March	10.45 Museum Steps
Saturday 31 st March	13.30 Library Entrance

April 2018	Tour
Wednesday 4 th April	13.30 Library Entrance
Saturday 7 th April	13.30 Museum Steps
Wednesday 11 th April	13.30 Museum Steps
Saturday 14 th April	10.45 Library Entrance
Saturday 14 th April	13.30 Museum Steps
Wednesday 18 th April	13.30 Museum Steps
Saturday 21 st April	13.30 Library Entrance
Wednesday 25 th April	13.30 Library Entrance
Saturday 28 th April	10.45 Library Entrance
Saturday 28 th April	13.30 Museum Steps

- On 31st March and 28th April you can do both tours in a day!
- Tours take around 1 ¼ hours.
- Tickets cost £9-80 and can be booked from our website right up to the tour departing.
- Tours can sell out - book early to secure.
- The Library Café and Edwardian Tea Rooms are great for pre- or post-tour refreshments.

Audio Receivers

Used on some tours and for people with hearing impairment makes a huge difference - you do not miss a word! In April we are upgrading to state-of-the-art systems.

Customer Reviews

- We are currently rate #1 tour in Birmingham!
- Read over 150 reviews of how people found the tours

Canals, Victorian and Modern Library of Birmingham Entrance

- The canals, Georgian and Victorian Birmingham along with twentieth century architecture and the city you see today. Includes an understanding of current developments and where the city is going.

In the footsteps of Sir Edward Burne-Jones

Museum Steps, Chamberlain Square

- The heart of the city. Includes an appreciation of the Birmingham-born artist Sir Edward Burne-Jones as well as the public art and architecture all around us including very modern new developments. A fantastic yet down to earth introduction to the city.