

Positively BIRMINGHAM Walking Tours

Newsletter Winter 2019

www.positivelybirmingham.co.uk

Fun on a Sunday afternoon

- Our new Tour 3 Discovering Birmingham launched at Birmingham Heritage Week. It runs most Sunday afternoons starting at 13:30 from the Library of Birmingham entrance.
- To check dates and book look at our website: www.positivelybirmingham.co.uk.

Customer Reviews

- We are often rated #1/31 tour in Birmingham.
- Read around 250 reviews of how people found our tours.

Positively Birmingham city centre walking tours run throughout the year. You can book on our website or on Tripadvisor.

Do email us if you have any questions at:

info@positivelybirmingham.co.uk

www.positivelybirmingham.co.uk

Walking tours explained

Tour No. 1 The Georgians & Victorians, Canals, C20th Birmingham and more:

Our original tour which includes Brindleyplace, Gas Street Basin, and Victoria and Chamberlain Squares.

Tour No. 2 In the Footsteps of Sir Edward Burne-Jones:

The heart of the city from the Museum & Art Gallery right down to St Martins' in the Bull Ring and back.

NEW: Tour No. 3 Discovering Birmingham:

Take a sideways look at the city. Explore less known canals, the Jewellery Quarter and city squares. Starts and finishes at the Library of Birmingham.

Private Tours: We also offer private tours for public and commercial groups – details on website.

Tour 4: Early Riser - starts Easter Saturday

- 45 minute familiarisation of the city
- 08:00 from Centenary square.
- Includes copy of Discovering Birmingham guide book.

Audio receivers hit the spot....

- Our audio system is used on many of our tours and means guests do not miss a word of our live tour guide commentary.
- Fantastic for large groups such as school and coach parties.
- Great for those with impaired hearing – about 1 in 7 of the UK population.

