

Public Walking Tours

- £10 tickets for ten years in 2026

Our popular weekend city tours started in 2016 and run year-round. We combine history, architecture and modern life in a fun and informative way. Tours are meant for locals and visitors alike. In 2026 we celebrate ten years of our tours. To celebrate adults tickets for our Saturday afternoon tour are just £10 all through the year, when purchased from our website.

Private Tours

We offer bespoke tours for a wide range of organisations. Our large group tours take place around the city's squares and canals. We use a personal amplifier system so everyone hears the commentary. Tours can be tailored for businesses, build to rent activities, educational groups and societies.

Our private tours are usually lead by Jonathan Berg and can have a varying degree of VIP content. Just email us your enquiry and we can discuss options.

1,100 Tripadvisor reviews give a feel for our fun and memorable walking tours.

Contact: info@positivelybirmingham.co.uk

Our Books

BRAND NEW!

Birmingham as you have never seen it before. Every photo taken with a drone camera. The ultimate Birmingham gift - see overleaf.

- Hardback | 160 pages | £20

Discovering Birmingham

A fully updated guide to our ever-changing city.

A great introduction to Birmingham past and present, with plenty of ideas for things to see and do.

- Paperback | 80 pages | £8.00

Birmingham's Public Art

A beautifully produced hardback book showcasing the city's extraordinary range of public art.

- Hardback | 180 pages | £20

Invention & Design; Elkington of Birmingham

The amazing story of Jewellery Quarter inventiveness, producing goods for the world.

- Hardback | 120 pages | £15.00

Birmingham as never seen before

Jonathan Berg's 14th book on Birmingham uses drone photography to reveal the city from striking new angles.

Peaky fun

Digbeth's creative quarter bursts with activity, from new TV studios to amazing graffiti and street art murals.

Celebrating a diverse city

From churches, mosques and gurdwaras, the drone's view highlights a key Birmingham strength, the mix of cultures that have shaped the city we know today.

Sporting spirit

Cricket at Edgbaston and packed stands at Villa Park and St Andrew's. Birmingham's passion for sport looks spectacular from above.

Proudly Birmingham

People make the city. The mural of Benjamin Zephaniah reminds us that Birmingham's character comes from its communities.

Behind the lens

Five pages explaining drone camera techniques and revealing how images were created.

Order your copies today

Available from bookshops and online.
Signed copies from our website.

Hardback | 160 pages | £20

ISBN 978 1 739645 3 1

Edgbaston, Birmingham. This historic street in the heart of the city is the largest in Birmingham. It is the heart of the city and the most beautiful street in the city. The street is the heart of the city and the most beautiful street in the city. The street is the heart of the city and the most beautiful street in the city.

Edgbaston, Birmingham. This historic street in the heart of the city is the largest in Birmingham. It is the heart of the city and the most beautiful street in the city. The street is the heart of the city and the most beautiful street in the city.

Great Mosque of Birmingham. This historic building is the largest in the city. It is the heart of the city and the most beautiful street in the city. The street is the heart of the city and the most beautiful street in the city.

Handsworth Old Town Hall. This historic building is the largest in the city. It is the heart of the city and the most beautiful street in the city. The street is the heart of the city and the most beautiful street in the city.

St Andrew's, Birmingham. This historic building is the largest in the city. It is the heart of the city and the most beautiful street in the city. The street is the heart of the city and the most beautiful street in the city.

Edgbaston, Birmingham. This historic street in the heart of the city is the largest in Birmingham. It is the heart of the city and the most beautiful street in the city. The street is the heart of the city and the most beautiful street in the city.

Flying Safely Before attempting the flight, it is essential to read the CAA's rules and regulations. The CAA's rules and regulations are essential to ensure the safety of the flight. The CAA's rules and regulations are essential to ensure the safety of the flight. The CAA's rules and regulations are essential to ensure the safety of the flight.	On Location Before attempting the flight, it is essential to read the CAA's rules and regulations. The CAA's rules and regulations are essential to ensure the safety of the flight. The CAA's rules and regulations are essential to ensure the safety of the flight. The CAA's rules and regulations are essential to ensure the safety of the flight.
---	---